The Spaniard's white teeth shone between his gleefully parted lips. On the next action Budd won and the Spaniard lost; and on the next Budd whip-sawed him, and that closed the deal. Don Josquin's smile was not visible. As soon as the case was out on the next deal, the Don coppered it with twenty doubloons, and Budd played it open from the assembled throng, and retired to for the same. It was the box-card, and the Spaniard showed his teeth again, but not gleefully. He said "Carajo!" under his breath. Another action followed with the same result. The Institute has just published a new book, treating exclusively of "Nervous and Mental Diseases." 150 pp. cloth. Price $1, or all three books sent on receipt of $3. pestage paid.

These are, beyond all comparison, the most extraordinary works on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever, either Married or Single, of Either Sex, can either require or wish to know, but what is fally explained, and many matters of the most important and interesting character are introduced, to which no allusion even can be found in any other works in our language. All the New Discoveries of the author, whose experience is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any man, are given in full, especially any of those relating to Spermatorthora, Imroteacy Sierility or Barrenness. No person should be without these valuable books. The press throughout the country, the cleny and the medical faculty generally highly extol these extraordinary and ascful works. The most fastideous may read them
